DUPLEX IV (Item #233)

Broadcasting resonance system attuned to specific frequencies to counter geological stressors (Grids, Water Veins, Faults).

This resonance system may be expanded by connecting one or more Rayonators to counter electromagnetic (and other) stressors.

In addition, by adding a grounding cable and plugging the duplex into an electrical outlet, frequencies may be sent throughout the home/office via the grounding wire.

Rayonators sold separately. Specifications: Range of frequencies: 90 feet

Placement: Lowest lived in level of the home

MINI-RAYONEX (Item #2033)

Broadcasts healthy bioresonance frequencies to promote health, healing and to support the body under stress from 5G radiation.

Frequencies promote ATP in the body giving it energy.

Its small size is ideal to fit in a pocket or purse.

It works best in close proximity to a person or animal during in any environment; especially when confronted by 5G Radiation.

Resonating with healthy frequencies versus un-healthy provides you with the best EMF protection!

Broadcasts 2 Fundamental Frequency Values (FFV).

Specifications: Range of frequencies: 6 feet

Placement: Close to the body
